THE RACES.

Spring Meeting of 1870, Over the Chickasaw Jockey Club Course.

The First Heat.—The horses, on being brought out, excited universal comment, all of them appearing to be in splendid condition. Chickares was especially admired, not only for his faultless form, and holding it. Banquet here took a notion to go to the front, and made a boid dense for it, passing Grissim and challenging Chickaree. The bay coit, however, ing Chickaree. The bay coit, however, pirest pay—ruesday.
